Melvin Mark Brokerage Company Adds Andrews To Team

PORTLAND, Ore. — February 15, 2011 — Paul M. Andrews, grandson of Melvin Mark Companies founder Melvin “Pete” Mark, and youngest son of Melvin Mark executive Scott Andrews, has joined Melvin Mark Brokerage Company as a commercial real estate broker. Andrews specializes in representing both landlords and tenants in the Portland Metropolitan Area.

Prior to joining Melvin Mark, he served as research and marketing director for Ritchie Commercial Real Estate in San Francisco and San Jose, California. In a previous position, he served as a legislative intern for Rep. Brent Barton (D-Clackamas) in the Oregon Legislature.

An outdoors enthusiast, Andrews spent three months at the National Outdoor Leadership School, a wilderness training program, learning to lead mountaineering, rock climbing, and canoeing expeditions. Growing up, he participated in several Medical Missions International trips to the Dominican Republic, Papua New Guinea and Ecuador.

Active in the community, Andrews has recently joined the Board of Directors of the Oregon Historical Society. He serves as a managing member of the Blanchet Youth Committee to support the Blanchet House of Hospitality, and a ski coach for Jesuit High School. A magna cum laude graduate of Santa Clara University, he resides in Northwest Portland.

The Melvin Mark Companies have developed, owned and managed property in Portland since 1945. They currently own or manage nearly three million square feet of commercial space in the metro area, and provide a full range of commercial real estate services for landlords and tenants. The companies include Melvin Mark Brokerage Company, Melvin Mark Capital Group, Melvin Mark Construction Company, Melvin Mark Development Company and Melvin Mark Properties. Melvin Mark Brokerage Company is Oregon’s only member of the CORE Network, a global alliance of commercial real estate providers with affiliations in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Asia and Europe.
