Melvin Mark Companies Promote Barnett, Jackson

PORTLAND, Ore. — February 15, 2011 — Melvin Mark Companies, a family-owned commercial real estate services company, has promoted Kim Barnett to human resource manager. Elizabeth Jackson has been promoted to operations coordinator for Melvin Mark Construction Company.

Barnett joined Melvin Mark Companies in 2005 as development coordinator for Melvin Mark Development Company. Her new position will combine her development department duties with her human resources oversight. With 20 years of experience in office administration and marketing, Barnett held previous positions with Anderson Door & Window Mechanics, Inc., and Puget Plastics Corporation. She attended Seattle Pacific University and has earned continuing education certificates from University of Oregon and Portland State University. Barnett resides in Tualatin.

Jackson joined Melvin Mark Construction Company in 2010 as operations assistant. Prior to joining Melvin Mark, she was a landscape designer with Sam Williamson Associates in Portland. She has a master's degree in Landscape Architecture from Washington State University and resides in Northeast Portland.

The Melvin Mark Companies have developed, owned and managed property in Portland since 1945. They currently own or manage nearly three million square feet of commercial space in the metro area, and provide a full range of commercial real estate services for landlords and tenants. The companies include Melvin Mark Brokerage Company, Melvin Mark Capital Group, Melvin Mark Construction Company, Melvin Mark Development Company and Melvin Mark Properties. Melvin Mark Brokerage Company is Oregon's only member of the CORE Network, a global alliance of commercial real estate providers with affiliations in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Asia and Europe.
