Melvin Mark Development Company Promotes Lewis

PORTLAND, Ore. — September 20, 2011 — Craig Lewis, senior project manager for Melvin Mark Development Company, has been promoted to vice-president.

“Craig has been an integral part of many of our company’s successful projects,” said Dan Petrusich, president, Melvin Mark Development Company. “His leadership and innovative thinking is essential to our success moving forward.”

Currently, Lewis is working on the construction of the new Blanchet House of Hospitality project in Northwest Portland, and is undertaking predevelopment responsibilities for the Morrison Bridgehead project in downtown, which includes the new James Beard Public Market.

Active in the community, Lewis is a member of BOMA Portland, Commercial Association of Realtors, Oregon Association of Realtors and NAIOP. He holds an undergraduate degree from Willamette University, is a designated Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) and has completed construction industry courses through the University of Wisconsin School of Engineering. He resides in Beaverton.

The Melvin Mark Companies have developed, owned and managed property in Portland since 1945. They currently own or manage nearly three million square feet of commercial space in the metro area, and provide a full range of commercial real estate services for landlords and tenants. The companies include Melvin Mark Development Company, Melvin Mark Brokerage Company, Melvin Mark Capital Group, Melvin Mark Construction Company and Melvin Mark Properties. Melvin Mark Development Company is a seasoned leader in many of the region’s foremost development projects.
