

For more than twenty-eight years, Mike Kendig has been a valuable player in the continued success of Melvin Mark Companies. Mike manages the accounting functions for all four member companies, working directly with property owners, communicating with tenants and dealing with bankers, outside accountants and lawyers. His financial skills and dedication to superior service have been crucial to Melvin Mark's ability to maintain high occupancy rates in their buildings and acquire management and leasing contracts with property owners.

Michael J. Kendig, CPA
Senior Vice President & Controller

Professional Experience

In more recent years, Mike's real estate experience and CPA background have added to the Mark team's ability to plan new projects and identify good acquisitions. Whether projecting financial results using ARGUS software or researching tax implications, his balance of experience and common sense help the company quickly focus on the important issues.

Prior to joining Melvin Mark in 1982, Mike served as a CPA at Yergen and Meyer specializing in real estate partnerships and small business accounting. He also served as an accounting officer in the controller's division at US Bancorp.
