

Peter Andrews

BROKER, MELVIN MARK BROKERAGE COMPANY

Peter Andrews began his career in 2004, but as the grandson of Melvin Mark, Jr. he's been part of the business literally since day one. Peter's desire to be part of the Melvin Mark Companies emerged early on. "I remember coming down to the office as a kid. I loved the excitement of the business and the enthusiasm that my grandpa, uncle and dad had about their work. From a young age, I dreamt I would be right here, working in the city that I love and in a business I have always been proud of."

Peter had an immediate impact. In 2007, in conjunction with the Melvin Mark Brokerage team, Peter successfully completed over 100 real estate transactions. His approach is simple: combine proven marketing methods with the latest high-tech resources to ensure each client receives the level of service they deserve.

Over the last three years Peter has focused his efforts on downtown Portland including the Central Business District, NW Shopping District, Pearl District, and Inner-Eastside. He is experienced in tenant/landlord representation and property acquisition/sale for both retail and office clients.

"From a young age, I dreamt I would be right here, working in the city that I love and in a business I have always been proud of."
