

BRYN HOKKANEN

BROKER

503.546.4534 / bhokkanen@melvinmark.com

Bryn joined Melvin Mark in early 2018 after working with a large national real estate investment firm. As a broker, he now focuses on representing landlords and tenants across the Portland area. Bryn has found that the keys to a successful landlord-broker relationship are hard work, communication, and trust. He believes that creating a successful team dynamic is critical and ultimately helps create a more efficient process in finding ideal tenants.

In Bryn's time at Melvin Mark, he is proud to have represented high-profile office portfolios in Portland and played a prominent role in numerous transactions. His goal is to be transparent with his clients to make sure they have all the information they need about a property or the process. And with a friendly personality and dependable judgment, Bryn helps guide them in the direction that benefits them most.

For this Portland native, real estate is a natural career choice. Bryn has enjoyed watching the city flourish and plans to be part of its continued growth and success. When he isn't working, you'll find him on the golf course, mountain, basketball court, or cheering on his beloved Trail Blazers and Oregon State Beavers.
